
Title: Pre-Ramble to Research

Author: Ricardo

This be the beginning of me great research.

I, Ricardo, master
thief, am going to discover the truth of the legend of Lord British's Vault.

I will be hiding me
research where only I, Ricardo, can find it
by using me ancient magic lamp.

Me lamp 'tis better than any map, for a
map can be decoded.
No one alive but me, Ricardo, knows the secret of how this lamp works.

I have hidden me
research near me
favorite locations in Sosaria, but even me
closest friends could not find it without the secret of me lamp.

Thus, if'n I would tell a body that part of me research be near the Terathan keep, it would not help them a wit lest they have me
lamp to discover
exactly where 'tis.

I never keep me
books and me lamp
in the same place
for security
purposes.

I have also discovered
a way to enchant me
research books so that they can only be read using me lamp.

Finally, as an added security, me books can only be lifted by me.

Ya larn a few things
over the years about security when ye
are a master thief.
